

BCSS STUDENT COUNCIL 2016-2017 Auxiliary Member Application

Are you a self-involved wildcat? Do you have passion for the school? Would you like to build a community at Burnaby Central? Would you consider yourself a team player, responsible, or a leader? How about all the above? If you answered yes to any of these questions: You could possibly become an auxiliary member for this year's Student Council!

Being an auxiliary member means:

- You have a flexible schedule & can commit to poster paintings, meetings, spirit days, big events, etc.
- You are a kind, responsible, & a positive role model that suits Council.
- You can be a supporting/helpful/involved team member.
- You can attend the weekly Monday meetings at lunch consistently.

Name: _____ Grade: _____ E-Mail _____

The reason why I should be chosen as an auxiliary member for this year's council is because....

Some skills/traits I can bring to the table and contribute to council are...

Please list some extra-curricular activities, or volunteering that highlight your experiences in teamwork/leadership:

Give one or more new idea(s)/event(s) that you'd like to have Council make happen:

If you could choose one thing to change about Burnaby Central, what would it be and why?

Thank you for your interest in applying!

Please have this form submitted to the Student Council letter tray (photocopy room) by Thursday, September 22 by 3:03pm. Any questions can be directed to Emily Tran(e.htrann@gmail.com) or Sophia Ji(Sophia-ji@shaw.ca). Please keep an ear out for interview schedules, which will be posted on the student council office window.